In the Interim April 2019

Opening Day

This year, the Oriole’s home opener is going to be on April 4 against the NY Yankees. It’s only fair – after all, the Yankees will be hosting the O’s at their own home opener on March 28 this year.

It must be spring!

Now, I love the Yankees. Perhaps you love the O’s. And I really love a good game of baseball. Every spring, there is the promise of great baseball. Every spring, there is the promise of redemption from last season. Every spring, fans of every team can see the promise of the pennant.

April also brings the festival of Passover, a time when Jews around the world commemorate the story of who we are and where we come from. This year, Passover coincides with Easter, the holiest day in the Christian calendar; a day for Christians to celebrate rebirth and renewal, and what it means to be a Christian.

What does the springtime hold for you? I’m hoping that by the time you read this, we will have word about your next minister. So many possibilities rest in that! What are you looking forward to?

Many of you have asked me about the next steps in building your social justice ministry. That’s one way that you can prepare for moving forward and renewing the church. On April 14, I’m inviting you to stay after the service for a presentation and conversation on taking the next steps in forming a social justice ministry. Please join me!

Are you ready? Well then! Play ball!

In shalom,
Pastor Madelyn

Board Bits

The March 19th Board meeting kicked off with an interim ministry discussion, related to Madelyn's plans for supporting us over the next few weeks. In mid-April, she would like to hold a social justice workshop, which will go along with the service she is planning.

The space search was the main focus of the meeting. The Board agreed to have Toni Rosen be the new lead for this effort. Toni has an abundance of skills to draw upon and is able to put forward the time and effort to help us find the best situations to choose from. The Board is grateful that Toni offered to help find our new home. At this point, the Board is requesting that the search be quite open with regard to size, rent and situation, so that we don't miss opportunities from a narrow search.

The remainder of the meeting was spent with a continuation of the Church Structure effort, which is getting the finishing touches applied.

Sincerely,

Dan Vallone, Board Scribe

President's Column

It's been another busy month at Channing as we balance the settled minister and space searches on top of our usual programs and worship services. Given the small size of our congregation, a large percentage of our congregation is deeply involved in one of the searches, the board, religious education, worship services, hospitality, cleaning, membership, choir, finances, communications, care team, or another major activity. We have big dreams, and we also need to pace ourselves so that volunteers do not burn out. Our volunteers are resources that we need to guard as carefully as our financial resources.

As we make major decisions about space and approach the time to start goal-setting for next year, I suggest that the volunteer workload be considered as much as the financial cost of any decision. There may be times that spending funds in one area versus another makes sense from the standpoint of better managing volunteer resources.

I also encourage volunteers to look for ways to do things efficiently and let go of perfectionism. Does every worship service need to be worthy of the National Cathedral, or does the annual report need to read like it came from a Fortune 500 company? I imagine that we will still reach many souls with less lofty goals. We have done much in the last couple of years to explore more sustainable models of providing religious education to our children and youth.

We have always held high standards for ourselves; if we do not balance work with rest and renewal, we will in the end fail to accomplish our mission. Volunteers are also congregation members and friends who seek to connect in mystery and wonder. When church starts to feel more like a "job" and less like a place of spiritual renewal, we need to restore balance. Please take care of yourselves and each other.

In faith,

Julie

Search Committee Update

Hello Channing Members and Friends,

We know everyone is anxious to have an update on the search for our minister. The Search Committee has completed a series of pre-candidating weekends. During these weekends, the candidates met in person with the search team, toured the area, visited our church, and served as guest minister at a nearby UU congregation, enabling us to experience the candidate leading worship. Since completion of these weekends, we have discussed and evaluated how each candidate fits the priorities of the congregation. We then submitted our choices to the UUA Transitions Office. The ministerial candidates have also submitted their choices. Following a matching procedure between candidates' preferences and ours by the Transitions Office, we will be notified of the results in early April. If there is a positive match, we will then announce the candidate to the congregation.

As we await word from the Transitions Office, we are optimistic and hopeful, but also aware that the candidate must be a good fit with CMC. As always, stay tuned and offer positive thoughts, energy, or prayers as this exciting time continues.

Roaring Into the 2020s Stewardship Update

WE'RE ALMOST THERE

A big thank you to all who have responded to our Roaring Into the 2020s pledge drive and have turned in your Operating Fund pledges for the upcoming 2019-20 church year. As of this writing, we have received about $121,600 in pledges toward our goal of $130,000, with about 6 potential pledges still outstanding. With the addition of $6,100 in match fund pledges, this should bring us close to our goal. As a reminder, we would like to complete the pledge drive by March 31 so we can start working on next year's budget. Some of our canvassers have been busy traveling during March, so if you have not been contacted for a pledge, please contact Evelyn or Ostara and we will arrange for someone to call on you. You may place completed pledge forms in the box on the table near the name tags. Thank you again for supporting Channing Memorial Church's mission and goals.

Sincerely,

The Stewardship Team

From Membership

Hello Channing friends -

This is an exciting time of change at Channing! Our settled minister search is rapidly coming to a close, and we have recently been advised that our lease will not be renewed and we need to find a new place of worship by this fall.

If you have been enjoying your time with us and contemplating membership at Channing Memorial Church, this is the time! In order to be eligible to vote for the settled minister and for any votes at the Annual Meeting coming up in the next few weeks, you will need to sign the membership book very soon, since the Bylaws state that a member has to have been a member for at least 30 days in order to be eligible to vote.

As per our Bylaws, an active member is one who: 1) is at least 18 years old or has completed the requirements for youth membership designated by the Coming of Age Class; 2) knows the purpose of the Church as described in the Bylaws; and 3) has signified acceptance of that purpose by: (a) signing the membership book in the presence of the minister or other individual designated by the Board; and (b) has made a current recorded financial contribution to the Church.

Please contact the Membership Committee or Pastor Madelyn with any questions, and we hope to welcome you as a new member to Channing soon!

Covenant Circle Collects Food Bank Contributions in April

The Covenant Circle is asking for your help to reduce food insecurity and hunger in our surrounding community. Each year after the holidays, donations to food banks fall, sometimes leaving shelves bare. This results in an increase in the number of suffering families in the community. April is the highest time of need for donations to food banks.

Channing's closest community food bank is the Howard County Food Bank on Gerwig Lane in Columbia. Items most needed are listed below; they can also be found at the food bank's website (<<https://www.cac-hc.org/wp-content/uploads/Items-Needed-at-Food-Bank-Flyer-v5pdf>> Howard County food bank website). Members of the Covenant Circle are asking you to purchase requested items and bring them to church during the month of April. Whatever help you can give, whether it's items from the list or other non-perishable food items, will be appreciated. Please ask Deanna G. if you have any questions.

Most Needed Donation Items:

Canned and dried fruit; Hot and cold cereal; Soups; Pasta; Pasta sauces; Tuna; Baby food, diapers and wipes; Peanut butter; Canned beans (pinto, kidney and black); Canned vegetables (low sodium); 100% fruit juice

Thank you for your support!

Next "Final Friday" Potluck and Game Night at Channing!
Friday, April 26, 6:00-9:00 p.m.

Please join us on the final Friday in April to share food, friendship, and fun!

Bring a dish to share and a board/table game or, if it's not a good week, just bring yourself.

After dinner, join in a game, or just socialize. We'll have a movie available for young children who might want to just chill and watch.

If you have any questions, see Deanna Grabelle.

Howard County Faith Communities present Courageous Conversations about Race and Religious Bias

In Courageous Conversations, we will learn from one another and hear each other's perspectives about how we are living together in our experiences of race and religious bias. Our overarching theme this year is the question, "How do we work towards creating a connected community of different people rather than a community that lets different people in?"

Next Conversation Circles are April 2 and 9, 2019. All conversation circles begin at 7 pm.

The Ninth Annual "Hotter Than Thou" Chili Cook-Off

will take place on Sunday, April 7, 2019 from 12 pm to 2:30 pm at The Great Room at Historic Savage Mill, 8600 Foundry Street Savage, Maryland 20763 and will raise critical awareness about the issue of homelessness and increased need for affordable housing in Howard County. This event will bring together chili cook-off teams from 20 Howard County congregations and over 300 community members to raise funds in support of our mission to prevent homelessness.

The Chili Cook-Off will also bring together invited local dignitaries, guests and friends for an informal afternoon of light-hearted competition to determine which congregation will earn the coveted "Golden Ladle". There is no entry fee for this fundraising event.

Chili Cook-Off attendees vote by placing cash and checks in the congregation chili cook-off teams' "Tip Jar" and the congregation which brings in the most money earns the "Golden Ladle". Amid the fun and fellowship, we give away door prizes, we host a silent auction and raffle, local celebrity chili judging, client testimony, and event sponsors are thanked and promoted.

We are hopeful that Channing members and friends will support Bridges and enjoy some chili at the same time! Next year we would like for Channing to be one of the participating churches. Talk to Ken H or Joe if you're interested. This could be an opportunity for fun and support of a great cause and outreach for Channing.
