October Minister's Column

I start off each morning with a cup of coffee, slowly sipping the hot beverage as I sit on my front porch. In this routine I feel the air slowly cooling, each morning seemingly chillier than the one before. The leaves are close to browning as the seasons cycle into fall. And yet what seems like decay can also be full of renewal!

We have such an exciting year ahead of us! I have been meeting with committees and engaging with so many excited Channingites. What will this new church year look like? We continue to find ways to invite new folks to our virtual spaces and are working to increase our online presence. When visitors enter our virtual space, they receive a great Channing welcome email! Our website is continuously updated and the RE committee is putting together exciting online programming. Those who are struggling receive support. We continue to offer meaningful online worship, and Young Adult activities are adapting as well! Stewardship is gearing up and the Space Search Committee is on the lookout. Our Social Justice Team continues to do important work around UU the Vote, and the congregation is considering 8th Principle work.

And we have a unique opportunity to engage with the program Stewardship for Us. The congregation has been working closely with consultant Liz Coit, who is diligently working to offer us guidance on the finances of our congregation. We can use this information moving forward as we answer those big questions – do we rent or do we buy? What can we afford? What would a capital campaign look like? How much money do we need to raise? Ultimately, what can we do to fulfill the hopes and wishes of Channing Memorial Church? In considering our space search, we've got a big year ahead of us! And, we will do it. It may be hard at times, but it is achievable. So as the leaves begin to fall and that sun continues to set earlier and earlier, I invite you

Help Needed for Hurricane Victims

Dear Friends,
As you know, we are experiencing an extremely active Atlantic hurricane season that has devastated communities that dot the Gulf Coast. The UU Service Committee has established a fund to aid those who are most marginalized to ensure equitable relief for all families. Your generous contributions are gratefully accepted. Visit www.uusc.org.

For more information about the UU Service Committee, please contact Jim C.

Yours in faith and justice,
Jim C.

President's Column

Fall is here, my sweater has found its way into circulation, and it has been an eventful few weeks for the Church!

Last Sunday, September 13th, our special collection raised over $500 for Bridges to Housing Stability, an organization whose mission is "To provide a path to self-sufficiency to prevent and end homelessness through affordable housing solutions and advocacy in Howard County". Such generosity lifts my spirits. It is a truly fine thing to see compassion turn into action.

The following Tuesday, our board meeting featured a lengthy and thoughtful discussion with Liz Coit from Stewardship for Us about her findings, the gist of which she shared with the Congregation this Sunday morning. Thank you for your attendance! There were upwards of 40 participants. The Board's next task is to give some reasonable search parameters to the Space Search Team, who will then be able to start working with our realtor to "stomp the bushes" and see what's out there.

The Social Justice Team is working hard on UU the Vote efforts, and there is also steady progress on our Black Lives Matter sign/banner project (Howard County and Ellicott City both have many rules about signage). On a personal note, I have finished reading the Church's physical copy of Widening the Circle of Concern: Report of the UUA Commission on Institutional Change. I found the "Avatars", conglomerations of several peoples' real experiences with racism in the UUA into a fictional single voice, to be particularly worthy of my time. Let me know if you would like me to pass it on to you. It is also available electronically at <https://www.uua.org/uuagovernance/committees/cic/widening>.

Soul Matters for October: Deep Listening

Dear Channing members and friends,

Author David Augsburger writes, “Being heard is so close to being loved that for the average person they are almost indistinguishable.” During these anxious and unsettling times, this desire and need for a sacred community and the love this entails is strong. One way we can offer this life-altering gift of love is to listen, and to listen deeply. This month, we focus on the restorative power of deep listening, contemplating the ways listening shapes our lives and offers us each a chance to obtain wisdom from another. At times, what can be most restorative is to put one’s own thoughts and worries aside to truly appreciate, understand, and, in doing so, love another.

Deep Listening is our worship theme for October, and the theme for our small groups. These small groups are special because they allow each member to deeply engage with the topic in multiple ways. In preparation for each month’s Small Group, I will send each group member a packet. You are invited to select from this packet one spiritual exercise and one question to reflect on before our meeting together. While reviewing the packet ahead of time is a great way to prepare for group, please do not let a busy schedule deter you from participating. Whatever amount of time you are able to dedicate to preparation is just the right amount of time!

I ask that you sign up ahead of time. Please use the link below. Please provide me your email address so that I can send you the packet for you to review. I will also provide all attendees a Zoom link the day of the Small Group. If the slot that you can attend is full, just let me know. We have opened our small groups to the public to share our gifts with the community. Feel free to invite friends. I am excited to explore the topic of Deep Listening with you!

Vote By Mail Update

Please be aware that the US Postal Service has sent everyone a postcard with what was probably meant to be a reassuring notice about voting by mail. Note that the suggested deadlines to request a mail-in ballot are NOT the deadlines suggested in the state of Maryland.

The deadlines for Maryland are October 13, 2020 to register to vote and October 20, 2020 to request a mail-in ballot. (But do it early!)

The postcard did say to contact your local election board to confirm. Here is a link.

Need to Schedule a Meeting or Event?

If you need church space— virtual (Zoom) or physical (church office)— it needs to be reserved via newsshare. (Even if you don't need to reserve space, if you plan to meet with a good number of folks from church, please let newsshare know so that we can make notes on the church calendar.)

Send an email to newsshare@channingmc.org and let us know the date and time of your meeting or event, how long you expect it to last, and if you need to reserve space on the Channing Zoom account (you may have your own Zoom account, which is fine). If you want your meeting/event advertised, please give a short description of the event and a contact name and email. (We won't post last names or emails on the website.) You should receive a confirmation email back within 24 hours. Thank you!

Statewide Initiatives on November 3 Ballot

Friends, you may be interested in the two constitutional amendments that are on this year's ballot. The Nov. 3 ballot will contain two statewide measures:

Question 1. Authorizes the Maryland General Assembly to increase, decrease, or add items to the state budget as long as such measures do not exceed the total proposed budget submitted by the governor.

Currently, the state legislature receives a budget proposal from the governor and is not allowed to add expenditures to it or reapportion expenditures. The assembly can only reduce the state's operating budget. Also, currently, the governor may not veto an entire budget bill but may veto line items in the budget. Vetoed line items must be re-passed by the assembly. Under the proposed amendment, the governor could only veto items related to the executive department that were increased or added by the assembly. The governor's veto could be considered for a veto override in an extraordinary session of the assembly within 30 days of the veto. To override the veto, a three-fifths vote in each house is required. The UU Legislative Ministry of MD recommends a YES vote on Question 1.

Question 2. Authorizes sports and events wagering at certain licensed facilities. The state revenue generated by such activities would be primarily dedicated to funding public education. The measure would also authorize the Maryland Department of Transportation, the State Lottery and Gaming Control Commission, and the Maryland Attorney General to contract with a panel of experts to review the "Business Disparities in the Maryland Market Area" study completed in 2017 and determine whether remedial measures need to be taken for minorities and women in the commercial gaming industry. Currently, the Maryland Constitution requires the legislature to submit a referendum to voters in order to expand sports betting. Maryland is the single state that explicitly allows fantasy sports betting.

LH3 Returns! Sunday, October 11th at 9am.

Loving Hearts Helping Hands (LH3) child and youth ministry returns for another year of monthly service and social justice projects planned and executed by the youth of Channing Memorial Church. We will meet mostly on the second Sunday of each month, but this is subject to change as the church calendar warrants. We have scheduled the first meeting for 9 am, before church, to allow parents of the younger children to attend with their kids. In addition to planning our projects for the year, we'll also be discussing logistics and the best way to manage LH3 for everyone in the virtual world.

All Channing children and youth with their parents (if needed to help navigate the technology) are invited to attend this virtual planning meeting on Sunday, October 11th at 9 am.

Please come prepared with ideas for our projects for the year. Past projects have included making Valentines for residents of a retirement community, preparing Blessing Bags for unhoused folks and creating birthday gift boxes for foster children. We will be meeting virtually on Zoom at least through January 2021.

Please email Kathleen R. to confirm your attendance and receive the Zoom link for the meeting.

Channing Memorial Church, Unitarian Universalist

Our mission is to invite seekers into spiritual community, connect souls in mystery and wonder, and ignite compassion into action.

We are a church of liberal religious worship that inspires its members on their spiritual journeys. We derive a common spiritual center from Jewish and Christian roots while drawing inspiration from other world religions; promote religious education for all ages; create a welcoming, supporting, and caring community; and work together to build a better world.
